To Whom It May Concern:

RE: Dylan Schouppe

Dear Sir or Madam:

It is my pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Dylan Schouppe. I have known Dylan since he started his internship at Western PA Psych Care (WPPC), and he has had to work on some of our most difficult cases. Our agency is a community-based outpatient clinic that provides behavioral services and medication management for children, adolescents, adults, and geriatric populations with a gambit of diagnoses.

I've worked at WPPC since April 2014, and our agency is very particular about the people brought on board to work with our clients. Dylan started his internship in April 2023 and over the months we have developed a professional relationship. Dylan is always on time with his paperwork. He details his progress with each client and assesses himself as to which techniques work best with each client. He interacts very well with other employees and is always willing to assist them with any problems that may arise. Dylan has many attributes that serve him well in this field such as kindness, empathy, understanding, honesty, and integrity. He often will go above and beyond what he is required to do for his clients, and he is a very hard worker.

Dylan has shared his professional goals with me, and I fully support him as he works toward future goals and ambitions. He plots a course and stays on course. He works excellently with all ages and types of clients. Dylan is aware of what he wants to achieve in life and works strenuously in that direction. His temperament is patient and even, which is essential in this line of work. Dylan has received cases that other people have refused, but he goes into the case believing that he can make a positive change on some level. I honestly believe that Dylan Schouppe would be an asset to any agency, and he will eventually make a large impact on the people in his chosen field, in my opinion.

If I may provide any further information or be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind Regards,
-Matthew D. Maurer MA, LPC
